Addressing Race, Equity and Inclusion in Education: Practical Strategies for Constructive Conversations

Location: Online

Dates: August 7th, October 8th, or December 11th, 2020
Times: 4:00 - 6:30pm
Cost: $65

This co-facilitated online training is designed to build the capacity of educators and administrators seeking to engage in open, respectful and honest dialogue about race and equity in education with school stakeholders (staff, students, families, community members).

Participants will:

1. Identify multiple protocols that can be used to structure meaningful discussions with adults and students
2. Self-examine and address concerns and challenges related to building and maintaining a safe space for continuous conversation
3. Gain additional insight on how school districts and communities approach challenges and concerns related to race, equity and inclusion
